I was recently asked by a member to explain why the Talmud is important. I opened a volume and showed her a single page. What appears to be a dense sea of Aramaic is actually a precise series of texts, with each text connected to one another. In the center of the sea are the Mishnah and the Gemara. The Mishnah, compiled around 200 CE, is a collection of teachings, traditions, and debates about how to live as Jews. It developed over time because many of the Biblical laws could not be observed after the destruction of the Second Temple. The Gemara, compiled between 500 and 700 C.E., is a record of discussions and commentary about the Mishnah. Surrounding them, often in smaller type, are commentaries of the commentaries of the commentaries. The Talmud is important because each page contains centuries of Jewish dialogue and discussion.

The conversations we are having now are equally important. Judaism is an evolving tradition, and the value of our faith is revealed as much through our constant questions as through the transmitted answers. It is our duty to continue the conversation.
On Rosh Hashanah, I invited members of Temple to participate in Sh’mah Emanu-El. The goal of Sh’mah Emanu-El is simple and rich: to bring members together to learn and laugh, to rest and rejuvenate, to deepen connections to one another, to Temple, and to the rhythms of Jewish time and life.

During this next year, we will have conversations that will help us learn from others and from ourselves. Our next conversation is at 7PM on October 15th in Linz Hall. Later, between November and February, we will facilitate dozens of havdallah house parties in congregants’ homes. The conversations will be organized and led by trained members. Then, in the following years, we will build small, self-led groups of members who share common interests, passions, ideas, life experiences and geographies. Together, these small groups will learn and laugh together, celebrate, connect and relate. This is a multiyear process to build relationships within the congregation, to make a large congregation feel smaller, and to build a strong living community of communities.

Join the conversation on October 15th. Share the gifts of yourself with others. Talk with other parents and empty-nesters. Host or attend a havdallah house party. Sign up on our website. Share your voice, your ideas, your interests, and your truths. Listen and Connect. Relate and Renew.
Community Connections

Couples & Camaraderie
Join the Couples Club for socializing and entertainment with the over-55 set. At the recent dinner party, entertainer Marty Ruiz kept the group entertained, and a wine social and catered dinner made for a memorable evening. Don’t miss the next event on November 17. Details to come! For more information or to join, call membership chairs Roslyn and Richard Polakoff at 972.701.8271, Rozann and Harry Hermann at 972.235.3455, or Buddy or Renee Gilbert at 972.239.0022.

Temple Delegation Travels to Israel for Women of the Wall
Follow the blog (beginning October 31) of our Dallas delegation traveling to Israel to join with men and women from around the world to celebrate Rosh Hodesh Kislev, the 25th anniversary of Women of the Wall on November 4. We will celebrate Shabbat at Congregation Yozma with Rabbi Nir Barkin, who has been here in Dallas many times. We will be at the Kotel to pray, we will study at the Hebrew Union College Jerusalem Campus and visit the Knesset to speak with Israeli leaders about issues of pluralism that are so important to us as Reform Jews. For more information about Women of the Wall please visit http://womenofthewall.org.il/

Spend Shabbat with Young Adult Friends
Join Rabbi Kim Herzog Cohen, Cantor Leslie Niren and Young Adult Coordinator Melissa Duchin for quarterly Rest & Refresh Shabbat celebrations on October 4, January 10, 2014 and June 6, 2014.

“We will continue to meet in each other’s homes on Friday evenings, for uplifting services and delicious dinners,” said Rabbi Herzog Cohen in an announcement about the new series. “But sometimes, after a long week, we prefer to gather as a community on Saturdays!” Expect fun new opportunities such as a Saturday morning hike or bike ride or late-afternoon happy hour and havdallah at White Rock Lake. For more information, contact Melissa at 214.706.0000, ext. 166 or mduchin@tedallas.org.

Backpacks and Benchmarks

Temple’s association with the Pebbles Apartments continues to create meaningful relationships. For the second consecutive year, Temple Emanu-El volunteers have provided new backpacks filled with school supplies for the children living in the Pebbles Apartments. Huge thanks go to Laurie and Melissa Platt, Barbara Berger and Hesha Abrams for making this possible by their generous donations. In addition, Laurie and Melissa spent hours purchasing school supplies and placing them in the backpacks.

The Temple Emanu-El Vickery Meadow Committee was a sponsor of the Vickery Meadow Summer Reading Academy this year, enabling 15 Pebbles children to attend the Academy for tutoring in reading and math.

On August 14, the Pebbles children eagerly gathered in the Pebbles Community Room (renovated by Temple Emanu-El last summer) to receive their backpacks. Every child who regularly attended the Academy received a new school uniform.

If you are interested in helping with future drives for the Pebbles children, please contact Nancy Lubar at nlubar1@gmail.com.

October Collection

When you visit Temple Emanu-El this month, please consider bringing a coat for our October Monthly Collection. In cooperation with the Brotherhood Coats for Kids drive, we will be collecting coats for the entire month to benefit the Vickery Meadow Food Pantry and Clothes Closet and the Dallas Police Storefront. First Unitarian Church of Dallas will also be collecting coats as our social justice partner.

Gateway to Good Works

In July, Temple Emanu-El ECEC hosted 3, 4 and 5-year-olds from Family Gateway at summer camp. The children enjoyed art, cooking, music, playing outside, and getting to know our students and teachers. One of their favorite activities was yoga!

Family Gateway is the largest provider of services for homeless children and families in North Texas and has served their needs for more than 25 years. Your support matters and will enable them to serve more than 750 homeless children this year. There are many volunteer opportunities available from tutoring to meal preparations to collections, and they have openings during the week and over the weekend.

To learn more, call 214.823.4500 or visit www.familygateway.org. For more information about social justice at Temple Emanu-El, please contact Diana Coben Einstein at 214.706.0000, ext. 126, or deinstein@tedallas.org.

Our rabbis, cantors and our choir join together to lead services using the Union Prayer Book in Olan Sanctuary. Upcoming dates include:

- October 18 8:15PM
- November 15 6:15PM, using the Sinai Edition and featuring a digital recording of Rabbi Levi Olan’s radio sermon given on the first anniversary of President Kennedy’s assassination, along with Rabbi Stern’s reflections on the sermon. (This will be our only service on this evening.)
- December 6 8:15PM
- January 17 8:15PM

What is the Sinai Edition? The Sinai Edition is an adaptation of the classic Union Prayer Book. These new books, which follow in the rich liturgical tradition of our Reform movement, are updated to include: gender neutral language for God, transliteration and contemporary English, as well as new prayers for our modern community.

Why are some UPB services at 6:15 and some at 8:15? We value being together as a community on Shabbat and hope this combination of times, prayer books and special events will bring us together in all of our diversity to celebrate Shabbat.

OUR TEMPLE | OUR FUTURE

Let’s face it. Our building, while historic and beautiful, is urgently in need of a renovation that will carry it well into the 21st century and beyond. A project many years in the making, Our Temple | Our Future is the $32 million capital campaign that will help us create the synagogue of the future.

SH’MA EMANU EL

It sounds so simple: Have a conversation. Connect with one another in ways that go beyond the superficial to what really matters. Sustain those relationships over time in a way that enriches your life. That’s the vision of a transformed Temple through Sh’má Emanu-El.
SEVEN DEGREES OF CONNECTION

In articulating the goals of Our Temple | Our Future, Rabbi David Stern suggests: “If there’s a bumper sticker for Temple these days, it’s ‘connect.’” Here are the ways that the project will provide pathways to connection, while Sh’ma Emanu-El will build the relationships to help sustain those connections.

WHAT THEY’RE SAYING

Mike Sims
CHAIR, SH’MA EMANU-EL AND VICE-PRESIDENT

For so many of us, Temple is not just a sacred place, it is a place of sacred encounter. It’s a place where we celebrate our joys, comfort each other in times of need and develop lasting Jewish relationships. But we can do more. Sh’ma Emanu-El will provide a framework and a process for more of our members to truly come to know one another, while our new building will provide a warm and inviting setting for those relationships to form. Sh’ma Emanu-El and Our Temple | Our Future are, at their core, vital and connected projects that will build a new and engaging future for our congregation.

Mark Zilbermann
CO-CHAIR, OUR TEMPLE | OUR FUTURE
FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT

Our Temple | Our Future is about connections to God and to each other, and creating a space that will enhance our ability to do that. Sh’ma Emanu-El is about connecting with each other in closer relationships that will enhance our connection to God, our faith and our congregation. So, in reality, both projects are about the same thing. My experience is that the campaign itself has been about connections—certainly connecting with the future that we are trying to build. Certainly connecting with the past, and how those leaders had the foresight to provide the wonderful campus we have all enjoyed for the past 55+ years. But for me, it has been primarily about connecting with other congregants. When I have met with people to talk about the campaign, particularly people I didn’t know well, it has been a chance to get to know them better and create connections. This has really been a benefit I wasn’t expecting when I started to work on the campaign.

Sheryl Fields Bogen
CO-CHAIR, OUR TEMPLE | OUR FUTURE
BOARD OF TRUSTEES

As we reach out to our fellow congregants to share Rabbi Stern’s vision for our newly renovated building, we hear personal stories of why Temple is important, how our clergy and staff have been supportive in times of need, how Judaism strengthens and adds to our lives. We are weaving a beautiful tapestry of personal connections.

Rabbi Asher Knight
EXCERPT FROM HIS 2013 ROSH HASHANAH SERMON

For much of our congregation’s history, Temple reinforced relationships that existed beyond our walls. When Temple Emanu-El moved from South Boulevard to Hillcrest in 1957, our congregation’s members were largely concentrated in three neighborhoods. Today, Temple’s members live in more than 140 ZIP Codes.

As a congregation, we are preparing to lay new foundations. Our new and renewed building will create usable spaces for us to encounter the values of Judaism in relationship with one another. Rabbi Stern likes to call this the “architecture of possibility.” But the possibility will be ours to fulfill, ours to create the human foundations and lived Jewish experiences that will support our renewed congregational environments, our homes, and our lives. That is why I want to introduce you to Sh’ma Emanu-El.

The goal of Sh’ma Emanu-El is simple and rich: to bring members together to learn and laugh, to rest and rejuvenate, to deepen connections to one another, to Temple, and to the rhythms of Jewish time and life. At its core, Sh’ma Emanu-El is about building relationships.

Spread Some Warmth
Sunday, October 20, 9AM-1PM
Pollman Hall foyer

Temple’s successful Coats for Kids project is under way. Each year, this project distributes more than 1,000 coats to needy children. Please help give a child or adult a warmer winter during Boy Scout Troop 729’s annual collection. Look for drop-off bins at Temple entrances. Special thanks to Lone Star Cleaners & Laundry for generously donating cleaning and pickup services. All items collected will be distributed to the Dallas Police store front in East Dallas and the Vickery Meadow community. Contact Alan Harris at 972.424.0682 or alanharris100@hotmail.com for more information.

Time to Plant!
Sunday, October 20, 8AM-1PM

Brotherhood’s Fall Flower Festival offers glorious colors to brighten up your garden and your mood. Remember, fall is a great time to plant in Dallas! Be on the lookout for an order form prior to the sale, as there will only be a limited number of extra flowers available on the day of the sale. Choices include ornamental peppers, Swiss chard, kale, violas, pansies, dianthus, Dusty Miller, hanging baskets and flower bowls, priced $10-$30. For more information, contact Jeff Light at 214.766.2431 or jlight@tebrotherhood.org.
For more information about any of these learning opportunities, please check the Temple Emanu-El website, www.tedallas.org, under Adult Learning, or contact Melissa Duchin at 214.706.0000 ext. 158.

SPOTLIGHT ON...

Israel Forum: Conversations about Modern Israel
Noon, Weiss Youth Wing
Join us each month for a variety of lunch-n-learn opportunities related to modern Israel and society. No registration is necessary.

Friday, October 25
“Changing Landscape of American-Jewish Consensus over Israel”
Remote learning with Dov Waxman, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, Baruch College, CUNY. Dr. Waxman will speak via Skype on the large-screen TV and will offer insights and time for Q&As.

Friday, November 8
“Stand Up Nation: Exciting New Trends in Israel Politics and Economics” with Professor Eytan Gilboa and lecturer Hillel Schuster of Bar Ilan University

Jewish Mystical Texts and Spiritual Practice
9-10:10AM, four Saturdays beginning October 26, Weiss Youth Wing
Join Cantor Richard Cohn for a study series based on texts selected from Daniel Matt’s The Essential Kabbalah, interwoven with spiritual practices. Jewish mystical texts represent a significant body of thought and creativity, applied to the most fundamental concerns of our lives. They offer responses to difficult spiritual questions, while illuminating pathways of Jewish practice. Each session will be centered around a focal text and will include chant, elements of prayer and meditation, aspects of Mussar (cultivation of character traits) and attention to opportunities for Jewish observance.

Hebrew

Biblical Hebrew
Taught by Jan Timmons
Build your Biblical Hebrew vocabulary. Learn Hebrew grammar (applicable to biblical, prayer book, and Modern Hebrew). The students will focus on translating from Hebrew to English.
Classes take place on Thursdays 6:30-7:45pm beginning October 3, 2013 through May 1, 2014.

Beginning Hebrew, Prayer Book Hebrew II, and Hebrew Reading
Fluency classes have started. wPlease contact Melissa Duchin if you are interested in joining one of these classes; there may be a spot for you.

Discussion/Study

Bea Kabler Chever Torah Class
Join with Temple rabbis for a lively and enlightening discussion of the weekly Parsha (Torah portion) on Shabbat mornings from 9:00-10:20AM.

Lunch & Literature
Led by Rabbi Debra Robbins
Share a taste of Israeli food and short stories at Lunch and Literature starting in December at a monthly discussion group. Download the schedule, the stories and make your reservations for lunch by contacting Diana Hall at 214.706.0017 or dhall@tedallas.org.

Rabbi Levi A. Olan

Radio Sermons Series
Discussion led by Dr. Morton Prager
Bring your lunch and join us to listen to Rabbi Olan’s radio sermons from the 1960s, originally broadcast on WFAA radio, followed by a discussion. The original tapes were digitized and uploaded to the Internet, and are available on the website of the Bridwell Library at SMU.
Mondays, 12:15-1:30pm in Weiss Youth Wing
October 14, 21, 28

Spirituality... A Reflection on Torah and the Prophets
Informal discussions open to all. Shabbat afternoons, 1:30-3:00pm in the Jacobus Archives

Talmud Study
Taught by Rabbi David Stern
This dynamic class takes on topics from time-bound prayers to evil and good in the world today. Come join us for these thought-provoking discussions! Classes take place in Linz Hall on Wednesday mornings, 7:30-8:30AM
October 2, 9, 16, 23, 30

Torah from the Beginning
Taught by Robin Kosberg
This participatory, interactive class focuses on the Torah and its relevance to our lives. No prior knowledge or preparation necessary. Join us on Sundays when Religious School is in session, 10:00-11:30am in Levine Conference Room.

Florence Melton Adult Mini School

Beau Horizons: The History of the Arab-Israeli Conflict
Taught by Renee Karp
Beyond Borders provides students with a strong, text-based historical overview of the Arab-Israeli Conflict from the late 19th century through today. Classes meet on Thursdays 7:00-8:30pm in Levine Conference Room. First class: October 24th.
For more information or to register for all Melton Courses, contact Rachelle Weiss Crane, Melton Director, 214.239.7128 or rweisscrane@jccdallas.org.

Stepping Stones to Jewish Knowledge

Stepping Stones to Jewish Knowledge: An Introduction to Judaism
Taught by Robin Kosberg
Classes begin Tuesday, November 5, 2013. Most classes for Part II meet on Tuesday nights from 7:30-9:00pm in the Levine Conference Room, with two classes on Saturday morning.

Ongoing Learning Opportunities

Paths to Philanthropy
Temple has a variety of ways to contribute to activities and building maintenance. Below are four ways to donate. Visit https://participate.tedallas.org for listings of specific funds not mentioned on these pages.

Annual Campaign
A contribution sustains Temple as a place of worship, learning, celebration and observance.

Hunger Relief
Collects funds for hunger relief throughout the year, for distribution to local, national and international agencies dedicated to this cause.

Tributes
Honor a special occasion, express sympathy, remember a loved one or simply say “Thank You” with a donation to a Temple fund of your choice.

Celebration Brick
Commemorate a special person or occasion with an engraved brick for the beautiful Celebration Garden in the Horchow Courtyard.
