In 1978, our Reform movement published Gates of Repentance: The New Union Prayerbook for the Days of Awe. My congregation, Temple Israel of Boston, packed up the Union Prayer Book II, bought some books for the congregation and encouraged congregants to purchase personal copies. It felt great to own my own prayer book; holding it, I felt a deeper relationship to our people and our traditions. I immediately placed my tree of life bookplate in the front cover declaring it was, “From the Books of Debbie Robbins.” I used the book in high school and took it to college. I learned to lead services with it as student rabbi, and have held it on the bimah at Temple Emanu-El for 24 years of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services. The binding is cracked, the spine is frayed, certain pages are worn thin where cues have been marked and remarked, and reading assignments have been revised as the clergy team changed over the years.

I have changed (thank God!) over these four decades and our world has changed too. But other than some wear and tear, my machzor has remained the same. When I look at my bookshelves it becomes clear. I have added photos to family albums since the 1970s as my family has grown.

OUR FUTURE | UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Moving On Up to the East (and North) Sides

In anticipation of construction on the new administrative wing, chapel and gathering spaces, Temple’s clergy and administrative staffs will move into temporary offices beginning October 17. Please make a note of the following changes when you come to the building during this time (and we hope you come often!). Don’t hesitate to stop by the reception desk for further guidance if you have questions.

BRIDE’S ROOM
Rabbi David Stern
The Bride’s Room is being repurposed for Rabbi Stern’s study. An interim Bride’s Room will be relocated to a refurbished restroom in the hallway north of Olan Sanctuary.

Library Services are Available During Construction

As Temple undergoes construction, all of the library’s materials will be available for checkout. Congregants will not have access to the Weisberg Library, as it is being used for temporary office space. Here’s everything you need to know to check out materials.

• We will continue to add new books, films and other materials to the collection during this time, and you can access any of them by contacting our Temple librarian Nancy Rivin at nrivin@tedallas.org or 214.706.0000, ext. 155.
• An electronic card catalog is available via the Temple website at library.tedallas.org.
• If you need help with researching or selecting materials, please contact Nancy.
• If you know what you’d like to check out, leave that information with Nancy and she will leave it for you at the receptionist’s desk in the Olan Sanctuary foyer.

Moving Schedule for Temple Offices

October 6 Temple offices open at 1PM.

October 15 Some Temple staff may be unavailable after 12PM.

October 16 Temple is closed in observance of Simchat Torah; festival services with Yizkor will be held at 10:30AM in Pollman Hall.

October 17 Temple business offices are closed. ECEC remains open. Shabbat services will be held at 6:15PM in Olan Sanctuary.
COMMUNITY

Match.Sh’má

The next phase of Sh’má Emanu-El has arrived! It’s time to join a Sh’má Group. We will help you connect with others and find a group that is right for you. Come to one of our Sh’má Group matching events next month and find your place.

Sunday, November 16: 4:30-6PM
Wednesday, November 19: 7-8:30PM

Sh’má Groups are small groups of 8-12 members led by trained hosts. All will utilize materials developed by Temple clergy and meet at least once a month. They will be organized by geography, common interests and commitments to Jewish learning and living.

We intend for Sh’má groups to weave a social fabric of shared belonging—shaped by the idea that when we are in relationship and well-connected, we can better care for the well-being of one another. And when we support the spiritual growth and learning of one another, we will all live better, richer and fuller lives.

We want all members of our community to feel connected. Please join us in November to find a Sh’má Group that’s right for YOU!

YOUNG ADULTS

The Dish: Serving Up Big Jewish Ideas
Learn and explore. Stretch your mind and open your soul in a new monthly learning series for young adults. Join other 20s and 30s Dallasites in a casual setting as we talk about big Jewish realities, such as interfaith relationships—and discuss big ideas, such as what does it mean to be the chosen people? The first session will be led by Rabbi Kimberly Herzog Cohen at 7:30 pm on Tuesday, October 21 at Times Ten Cellars, 6324 Prospect Ave.
Contact Melissa Duchin, mduchin@tedallas.org

That’s How We Stroll
Rest & Refresh with TE Young Adults allows us to reimagine how to celebrate and embrace Shabbat. Join us for a nature walk with friends beginning at 10:30 am on Saturday, October 11 at Arbor Hills Nature Preserve, 6701 W. Parker Road in Plano.
RSVP Melissa Duchin, mduchin@tedallas.org

A panel discussion featuring
Daniel W. Fisk
Director, Economic Growth Initiative, George W. Bush Institute

James Hollifield, Ph.D.
Director, Tower Center for Political Studies at SMU

Clay Jenkins
Dallas County Judge

Rabbi David Stern
Moderator

The evening will also feature a firsthand account from a recent immigrant to the United States.

Contact: Becky Slakman, bslakman@tedallas.org
The five female elephants at the Dallas Zoo, dubbed the Golden Girls, enjoyed root balls from 43-year-old trees excavated by Lefkowitz Chapel to make way for the new worship space. A group of ECEC staff, parents and students arrived at the zoo early one morning to watch the elephants enjoy their new feast.

Dallas artist Sean Springer, who is known for his furnishings using reclaimed wood, will be repurposing tree limbs for use in the welcoming area of the new chapel. He knew from other projects that elephants love red oak root balls, and passed this information along to Temple, who then got in touch with the Dallas Zoo.

The Japanese maple that welcomed visitors to Temple at the Levy entrance has been moved to the south parking lot.

The cinnamon bark crape myrtles that were transplanted at Temple after the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta found new life at a local tree farm. They were excavated to make room for the new ECEC wing.

Taking Care of Our Own

Caring Congregation provides the member-to-member touches that help connect us to our large and wonderful Temple.

Enhance Your Prayer Experience

No need to worry if you forgot your readers at home. Thanks to Community MoVeRS, readers are now provided in an acrylic case and set outside services on Friday nights and Saturday mornings, along with other reading and mobility aids.

Find Community With Those who have Experienced Loss

Grieving is a personal experience and everyone manages it differently. The most important thing is to allow the process to unfold naturally. Temple partners with Jewish Family Service twice yearly to hold grief support sessions led by a trained facilitator. The next session starts on October 28 from 11:30am-1pm in the Shalom Lounge and runs for six consecutive weeks. Topics include the grief process, Jewish traditions and insights, support, communication and hope for the future. JFS counselor Deborah Leibensberger, ACSW, LCSW will facilitate and Cantor Leslie Niren will teach Jewish traditions and insights at the fourth session.

ARE YOU INTERESTED?

Temple wants to know if you are interested in being part of a support group for families dealing with a loved one who is living with mental illness and/or substance abuse. Please contact the Caring Congregation department and depend on Temple staff to maintain the strictest of confidence.

Help Save a Life: Give Blood
Brotherhood’s semi-annual blood drive, in partnership with Carter Blood Care, will be held on Sunday, October 12 from 8am-3pm in Linz Hall. Please sign up to give if you are able. Carter estimates that for every pint of blood donated, up to three lives can be saved. Register online or with Hal Sommer. RSVP blooddrive, tebrotherhood.org. Contact Hal Sommer, 972.239.6703, hsommer@tebrotherhood.org

Warm & Wonderful
The 15th annual Coats for Kids collection, sponsored by Temple Brotherhood, will be held from 9am-1pm on Sunday, October 26, at Temple’s entrance. Clean your closets for extra coats, jackets, gloves, hats, scarves and blankets for kids (and adults too!) and provide some warmth this winter.

In addition to the drive on October 26, collection bins will be placed outside the Temple entrance from October 12-31. As in past years, Lone Star Cleaners will clean the clothing and deliver to Vickery Meadow and to the Dallas Police storefront for officers to distribute. Mah Nishmah?! What’s up?
כֶּה נִשְׁפָּה!
Fun, games, learning and caring make headlines at Temple this fall.
LIFE OF CHAI

Adult learning at Temple is vibrant and diverse. Here are 18 paths to learning. Find one or many that work for you.

1. DISCOVER TALMUD
Study on Wednesday mornings with Rabbi David Stern from 7:30-8:30 AM and discover Talmud’s relevance in your own life. October 15, 22 & 29. Contact: Susan Salom, ssalom@tedallas.org

2. BE A BETTER PARENT
The ECEC’s parent education series brings in trusted professionals to help navigate the joys and inevitable challenges of parenthood. The next session is “Love and Logic” at 7 PM on Thursday, November 13 in Pollman Hall. Contact: Shelly Sender, ssender@tedallas.org

3. EMBRACE ISRAEL
Take your learning to the skies with annual journeys to Israel. There are two upcoming opportunities to travel to Israel, plus ongoing learning throughout the year. Contact: Karen Hoffman, khoffman@tedallas.org

4. GET TO KNOW US
Explore the exciting world of Judaism in our newly revamped Intro to Judaism course. The next course begins in January. Contact: Melissa Duchin, mduchin@tedallas.org

5. ENGAGE WITH THE ISSUES OF THE DAY
Temple has a variety of lecture series funded by generous congregants through the years. The next exciting lecture is the Henry D. Schlinger Ethics Symposium on immigration, “Welcoming the Stranger,” with a distinguished panel of experts, and Rabbi David Stern as moderator, at 7 PM on Thursday, November 6 in Pollman Hall. Contact: Becky Slakman, bslakman@tedallas.org

6. SEE ’60s DALLAS IN A NEW LIGHT
The popular Rabbi Levi A. Olan Radio Sermon Series Class returns for five weeks this fall. Listen to digitized recordings from Rabbi Olan’s sermons originally broadcast on WFAA Radio, followed by a discussion led by Dr. Morton Prager. Mondays October 27, November 3, 10, 17 and 24, 12:15-1:30 PM, JCC Senior Assembly Room. Contact: Melissa Duchin, mduchin@tedallas.org

7. TALK ABOUT GOD
Using material from the new machzor, Mishkan HaNefesh, God Talking will reflect on our beliefs (and what we don’t believe) about God’s presence (and absence) in prayer and out in the world. Led by Rabbi Debra Robbins on February 10, 17 and 24 at 7 PM at Temple Shalom. Contact: Diana Hall, dhall@tedallas.org

8. GROW SOMETHING
Experience Judaism’s ancient pull to the garden by getting your hands dirty! Our Community Garden offers opportunities to grow vegetables, practice composting, learn from master gardeners, participate in community work days and harvest food for the hungry. Adopt a bed with other Temple families or help out where needed. Contact: Ruth Klein, ruthbklein@sbcglobal.net
BUILD YOUR JEWISH HOME TOGETHER
An experiential workshop for all engaged couples to complement meetings with officiating clergy, including Shabbat celebrations and creating your own family traditions. This course is required of all couples who will be married by Temple clergy. Contact: Melissa Duchin, mduchin@tedallas.org

KNOW YOUR INTERFAITH SISTERS
Participate in Daughters of Abraham through WRJ, an interfaith women’s group that meets monthly to discuss issues relevant to women from the perspectives of Jewish, Christian and Muslim faiths. The next session is October 16. See page 6 for details. Contact: Leah Beth Kolni, 214.801.7463, leahbkolni@gmail.com

TAKE CHARGE OF YOUR OWN LEARNING
Beyond the Torah is the continuation of the long-running Torah From the Beginning class that concluded last spring. Led by congregants, this text-based study group will focus on prophetic books, Jewish history and liturgy, ethics, mysticism and responsa literature. From 10-11:30 am at the JCC on Sundays, October 12, 19 and 26. Contact: Steve Benenson, sbenenson@echelonanalytics.com

HAVE LUNCH WITH A RABBI
Lunch & Literature with Rabbi Debra Robbins returns this fall with an exciting array of reads from Israeli literature. Plus, share a taste of Israeli food in this thought-provoking monthly discussion group, from noon-1:30 pm beginning November 6 at Temple Shalom. Download the schedule at http://www.tedallas.org/learning/lunch-literature-with-rabbi-debra-robbins. RSVP: Diana Hall, dhall@tedallas.org, 214.706.0017

EXPLORE TORAH
Delve into the meaning of Torah each week at Chever Torah, Temple’s longest-running adult learning session, led by clergy and trained lay leaders, and held every Saturday at 9 AM before Shabbat Morning Services.

CURL UP WITH A BOOK
Explore modern literature through the Temple Emanu-El Book Club, held the first Monday of every other month at 2 pm in room 242. The next session is October 6, with The Book of Jonah by Joshua Max Feldman. Contact: Nancy Rivin, nrivin@tedallas.org

GET THE BUZZ
Participate in The Dish: Serving Up Big Jewish Ideas, the new young adults learning series. Sessions will be held in local venues beginning at 7:30 PM October 21 at Times Ten Cellars. Contact: Melissa Duchin, mduchin@tedallas.org

CREATE YOUR OWN
Interested in adult Hebrew, yoga, becoming adult b’nai mitzvah or creating a Sh’ma Group? Watch Temple communications for information sessions. Contact: Melissa Duchin, mduchin@tedallas.org

FINISH YOUR SOUL CURRICULUM
The practice of Mussar, in which small groups explore the ancient spiritual practice through study, meditation and journaling, has taken hold at Temple over the past several years. We hope to expand the program, so let us know if you are interested. Contact: Melissa Duchin, mduchin@tedallas.org

REACH OUT WITH INTERFAITH MOMS
The Mothers’ Circle is an interfaith group led by Renée Karp for non-Jewish women who are rearing Jewish children. We are creating a new group and determining interest and availability. Contacts: Renée Karp, renee@themotherscircle.org; Melissa Duchin, mduchin@tedallas.org

My Machzor

I’ve come to love more poets, novelists and philosophers for the wisdom and insight they bring to shape and shift my perspective. I’ve learned to embrace more than one idea or opinion as “truth.” There is something comforting and nostalgic about my machzor, knowing that in the uncertainty and evolution of ideas and society, words of prayer endure when everything around us changes. But after 40 years, as much as I love the familiarity of it, my machzor and I have grown apart, because it has not grown. People change. Our Reform movement has changed. And books can change too. On Rosh Hashanah in 2015, we will begin new relationships of passion and challenge, partnerships that may be uncomfortable and refreshing at the same time, with a central text of our community.

Mishkan HaNefesh includes a wide variety of poetry from Israel and around the world, both classic and contemporary, to complement and enrich the traditional words of prayer. Our new machzor has the transliteration right next to Hebrew so all can add their voices to the service. In Gates of Repentance, it is clear that Avinu Malkeinu is a metaphor: God is like a Father and God is like a King. This concrete imagery is expanded in Mishkan HaNefesh to reflect a diversity of images befitting our God, who is Infinite.

Our congregation is fortunate and grateful that two generous donations have been made to purchase the beautiful new books. Thanks to gifts from the families of Bobbie and Leo Fields and Martin J. Davidson Ph.D., of blessed memory, we will have some books available for members. At the same time, we want to invite you to purchase books for yourself and your family. Buying a machzor is different than buying a novel, a biography or even a book of poetry.

Those books will never have pages sticky with Rosh Hashanah apples and honey or be stained by tears at Yizkor. Buying a prayer book is an investment in a relationship—a relationship with your community, your God, with your own sacred soul. Having a personal copy of Mishkan HaNefesh is a commitment to the past and the future of Judaism. I’m already looking forward to putting a book plate in the front of my new machzor and seeing yours when we come together to welcome 5776!
YOU’VE HEARD THE MUSIC. NOW MEET THE MAN.
