Welcome to your 24/7 Jewish home, your place to pray, learn and laugh, to change the world, to hug and be hugged.

Here’s your annual guide to a year ahead of soul-stirring prayer and uplifting music; to learning from thought leaders across the Reform movement; to building community with other members and to nurturing family life through our dynamic schools.

Consider it your connection curriculum and keep it close by. We can’t wait to see you!

One Community, Two Amazing Itineraries, Countless Memories

June 3-14, 2020

Don’t miss this unforgettable Israel experience with two distinct and wonderful itineraries.

Traveling through Israel with your Temple community and clergy is an exceptional experience for anyone. Whether you’re a first-timer or you’ve experienced Israel in multiple ways, the opportunity to experience Israel with Rabbi David Stern, Rabbi Nancy Kasten and Cantor Leslie Niren is sure to become a cherished memory for all! We will come together as a community for the two Shabbat celebrations and the b’nai mitzvah ceremony.

Choices

• Multigenerational Journey, led by Rabbis David Stern and Nancy Kasten: Immerse yourself with the magic of Jerusalem; visit Masada and the Dead Sea and enjoy a kibbutz in the Galilee. Days are filled with hikes, family-friendly and adults-only sessions, an archaeological dig, sampling of delicious foods and more! For the full itinerary, visit arzaworld.com.

• Food, Culture and Art, led by Cantor Leslie Niren: Take a deep dive into the cultural, culinary and arts scene of Israel, with plenty of opportunities for connecting with Israeli musicians and artists; and tasting the glorious convergence of food traditions that make Israeli cuisine so unique.

Contact: Karen Hoffman, khoffman@tedallas.org
Since its very beginnings, Temple has been an advocate for social change in Dallas. That tradition continues with a robust menu of social justice and advocacy opportunities for all.

Advocacy

As a congregation, we speak out on contemporary moral imperatives. We play an active role in the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism and its new Texas office, RAC-TX. Current projects include public school finance reform, voting rights and immigrants’ rights.

Get out the Vote

Temple strives to be a 100 percent voting congregation, and believes civic engagement is core to our Jewish values. Watch tedallas.org/vote for opportunities to help with voter turnout and engagement leading up to the 2020 election.

Just Congregations Community Organizing

This team works with a broad base of multifaith partners. Through listening, research and relationship building, we develop local campaigns on a variety of issues.
Jill Stone Community Garden
Located at the northwest corner of Temple’s campus, the community garden grows and distributes fresh produce for the Vickery Meadow Food Pantry. Gardeners of all skill levels are invited to help out on Sunday mornings. We partner with the International Rescue Committee (IRC) New Roots program and have welcomed two families to garden alongside us in the coming year.

Service Projects
Temple has 19 social justice partners that are the beneficiaries of volunteer efforts and donations of fund support and supplies. Contact: Debbie Fuqua, dfuqua@tedallas.org

Temple Responds
This private Facebook group provides Temple members and friends with rapid-response opportunities to a variety of needs in our community and beyond. Search on Facebook for Temple Responds and join the group to get notifications of upcoming community opportunities.

Vickery Meadow Neighborhood
Projects include hands-on volunteering for our neighbors of this nearby community with a large concentration of economically disadvantaged people.

Let Us Know

Temple clergy and staff are available to support members of our community dealing with mental health and ongoing physical health issues. Please reach out to us if you or a friend or family member is dealing with depression, addiction, grief, cancer, chronic conditions, infertility or another condition.

Pastoral

Temple clergy and staff regularly meet with congregants. Let us know if you or someone you know would benefit from connecting with us, having a visitor while in a medical or assisted living facility or need a referral when life circumstances are overwhelming.

No Barriers

Finances are never a barrier to participation at Temple. Confidential financial assistance is available for most Temple events, tuition and dues.
