

2017-2018 ANNUAL REPORT

REPORT OF ANNUAL GIVING

Thank you for Making Temple Possible. We know there are many different paths and possibilities to being Jewish. Whether praying in a new way, marching for justice, studying Talmud, celebrating a simcha, giving back to the community, discussing a tough topic, chilling in the youth wing or schmoozing in a small group, Temple is able to offer countless experiences because of you, our members. As you take a few moments to peruse the pages of this Annual Report, know how grateful we, the Temple clergy and staff, are for your generosity of time and financial resources.

Our Mission

At Temple Emanu-El, the creation of a vibrant and meaningful community is both an enduring value and an ongoing endeavor. For us, community means a sense of warm welcome, meaningful relationships, and mutual responsibility. We affirm a sense of both valued boundaries and a great respect for diversity. We celebrate our identity as a multi-generational community.

-Excerpt, Core Values Statement, 2000

Contact Us

We have made every effort to give proper credit to all who have so generously made financial contributions to Temple Emanu-El during the 2017-2018 fiscal year. We regret any omissions or errors, and request that any oversight be reported to the Development Office at 214.706.000, ext. 198 or sdiamond@tedallas.org.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

As we begin this New Year 5779, we have the chance once again to look back at all we have accomplished as a congregation and look forward to all that is before us.

A lot has happened since we last observed the High Holy Days. We've prayed together and played together. We've stood shoulder to shoulder as we worked to repair our world, stood side by side as we celebrated the joys of life and sat hand in hand as we comforted one another during times of sorrow. We've done what we always do as a Temple family—been there with each other and for each other.

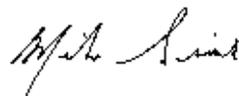

Looking to the year ahead, there is still much to do. As individuals with differing views move farther apart, Temple can create time and space for meaningful, civil conversations on difficult topics. As our community becomes more geographically spread out, Temple can foster small group experiences to help Jewish relationships to develop and thrive. And when the world seems to be changing faster and faster, and not always for the better, Temple must be a home for sacred rest and renewal—for the youngest members, the oldest members and everyone in between.

I hope you'll take the time to review this Annual Report. It's a great window into so many of the wonderful happenings at Temple and offers a one-year snapshot of giving. We are grateful for the roles that everyone plays in our Temple community. It is because of the generosity of so many that Temple is stronger than ever.

I also hope you will read the enclosed materials for the 2018-2019 Annual Fund, A Million Possibilities, and consider making a generous gift. Your gift is truly appreciated and will make a genuine difference in the life of our congregation.

Best wishes for a sweet and happy new year!

L'shanah Tovah,

Mike Sims

MAKING PRAYER & SPIRITUALITY possible

Praying together is at the core of Temple Emanu-El, whether we gather after a week of devastating news or in joyous celebration at Friday morning Tot Shabbat. In the past year, we expanded our offerings for family-friendly services and we opened our hearts and minds to new ways of experiencing the Divine. And on one chilly night in January, we packed Olan Sanctuary to hear The Reverend William A. Barber, one of the country's most dynamic Christian leaders.

Our new summer Prayer Labs provided congregants with a unique opportunity to try different ways to pray.

The Reverend William A. Barber brought his message of justice for all at a rousing MLK Weekend Shabbat sermon.

18

different types of prayer experiences at services are offered throughout the year, on Shabbat, during the week and on holidays and festivals. New for 2018-2019: B'Yachad, a service for everyone, geared to families with special needs children.

240

attendees enjoy Ta'am 8500 dinners every month

Some 40 men and women kicked off our Shavuot weekend with a Torah-focused yoga session.

MAKING ADVOCACY possible

If there is a cause for justice that exists in our city and our world, you can bet that Temple is front and center. Our get-out-the-vote efforts increased over the year and volunteers worked tirelessly to keep immigrant families together and advocate for gun violence prevention.

More than 300 congregants were trained to become deputy registrars. Temple is committed to becoming a 100 percent voting congregation.

In our work on behalf of immigrants, volunteers compiled informational packets for families at risk of deportation or separation.

142

congregants represented Temple in the March for Our Lives rally to stop gun violence and the Families Belong Together rally in support of immigrant families.

MAKING TIKKUN OLAM possible

Lend a hand? Of course. But at Temple Emanu-El, we throw in our whole hearts as well. Our commitment for tikkun olam, the practice of making the world a better place, kicks in week in and week out, whether it's growing gorgeous vegetables or responding to a crisis.

Temple volunteers assembled more than 80,000 meal kits
for people affected by Hurricane Harvey.

Every Sunday, Jill Stone Community Garden volunteers happily get their hands dirty to grow and distribute fresh food to Vickery Meadow Food Pantry.

Temple families helped clean up White Rock Lake as part of a Tu BiSh'vat mitzvah project.

Volunteers assembled and donated 22 teacher bags to Jill Stone Elementary School in Vickery Meadow.

Congregants presented 30 winter coats for students at Tasby Middle School in Vickery Meadow.

MAKING EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION possible

Oh to be a young child again. To make friends with the resident animals, to practice entrepreneurship at the annual shuk, to cook and to care, to sing and dance and play and hug. Coming soon: Together Time, a new program open to the entire community.

Students learn by experiencing their world, as part of the Reggio-Emilia philosophy of our Early Childhood Education Center.

Our Tot Shabbat programs are always a special time for our young children to come together in prayer and ruach.

332

students were enrolled in our Early Childhood Education Center, which includes infants to kindergarteners

61

had siblings who also attended ECEC

62

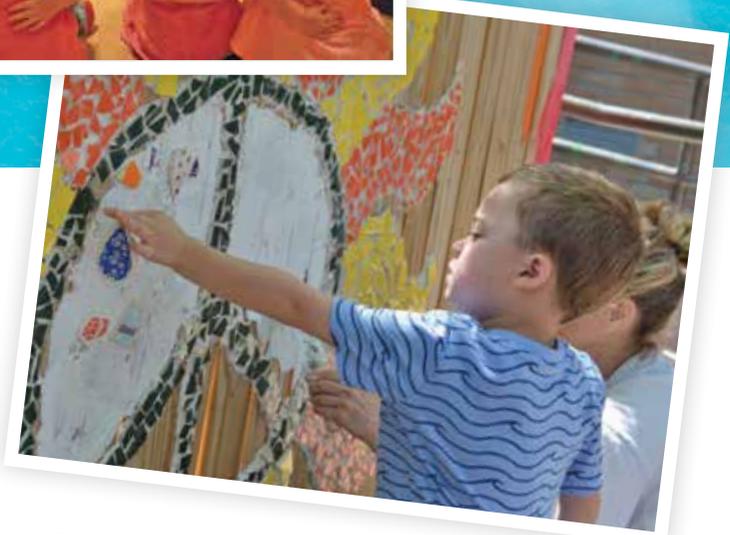

students were in Pre-K

14

graduated from the new kindergarten program, so successful that a second class was added for 2018-19.

Nature, art, music, togetherness—just another day of delight and discovery.

MAKING YOUTH LEARNING possible

Our children live in a fast-paced, constantly changing world. Temple is a place that helps ground them while at the same time meeting the challenge of modern family life. Coming soon: More family learning and opportunities to connect!

Torah came alive as students saw it unrolled.

Our community learned from our veterans at the annual Honoring Our Own event.

Confirmation students experienced Judaism through advocacy at the L'Taken trip in Washington, D.C.

574

K-10 students enrolled in Youth Learning + Engagement

66

students celebrated their b'nai mitzvah ceremonies

MAKING ATID possible

The Jewish future has arrived, and it's fantastic. Atid, our young adult community,
 is dynamic, committed
 and no stranger to fun.

MAKING MUSIC possible

Who doesn't love a melody? Music is part of Temple's prayer DNA, the building block of conversations with God. In quiet reflection, toe-tapping tunes, awe-inspiring anthems and spirited camp-style sessions, Temple is playing our song.

In 2018-2019, the Choir will appear in two special community performances in addition to lifting souls and hearts at services.

65

The Temple Emanu-El choir celebrated its 65th anniversary in March.

12

new singers joined the choir in 2017-2018.

Nava Tehila brought its unique sound to Temple.

Cantors Vicky Glikin and Leslie Niren jammed with Josh Goldberg at the congregational Booths & Bowls Sukkat Bash. This year, the theme is Shake It Up Sukkot with artist-in-residence Noam Katz.

We are forever grateful to Our Temple | Our Future donors for

possible

MAKING BIG FEEL SMALL possible

We believe that life at Temple is more meaningful if you are connected with other people. Now in its fifth year, the Sh'ma Emanu-El initiative has helped create a culture of relationships. Whether in Sh'ma groups, classes or cohorts arranged around interests such as being engaged or expecting a child, small groups have made a big impact on Temple life.

The Family Havalah Potluck Sh'ma Group, made more than 80 sandwiches for our social justice partner, Austin Street Center.

A Sh'ma Group of first grade families crushed the ninepins.

Temple's LGBTQ Sh'ma Group volunteered at Jewish Family Service to sort donated supplies.

Sh'ma Group Food for Thought served dinner at The Bridge.

532

people participated in 41 Sh'ma Groups or other small group experiences.

MAKING CARING possible

We care. Whether you know Temple caring through hospital visits, Mitzvah Meals and college packages, by cancer and grief support groups or through our No Barriers program of financial assistance, we are deeply committed to supporting our community at its most vulnerable.

The Well is a free caregiver's day out program hosted by Temple for those with loved ones who have early stage Alzheimer's or other forms of dementia.

MAKING GENERATIONS possible

Temple is a place to celebrate getting older, milestone birthdays and moments of transition. Our social group g2g, keeps busy with monthly outings and an annual out-of-town trip. And Wise Aging, our small group program to get the most out of life, just keeps growing. There's a place for you!

Rabbi Debra Robbins shared in the happiest of birthday celebrations with Bernice Raden — at 100 years young.

More than two dozen congregants traveled to Savannah and Charleston with g2g and logged more than 1 million steps.

50

attendees on average participated in g2g events

BEA GOLDMAN COVENANT SOCIETY

The Bea Goldman Covenant Society was founded in 2001 to recognize those who provide for the future of Temple Emanu-El in their estate plans. The society has been named to honor the memory of Bea Goldman, who was devoted to Temple in her lifetime and directed that virtually all of her estate benefit Temple.

We acknowledge with gratitude the members of the Bea Goldman Covenant Society, listed below, who have notified Temple of their planned gifts or have generously designated Temple as a beneficiary of their wills.

If you have left a gift to Temple in your will or other estate plans, but are not listed as a member of the Bea Goldman Covenant Society, we encourage you to notify Temple's Development Office so that we may recognize your generosity by including your name.

MAKING ADULT LEARNING possible

Dr. Robert Fine led a session of The Conversation Project, an important series about communicating end-of-life wishes.

Some members of the recent adult b'nai mitzvah class became participants in the Torah service on Shabbat mornings. A new cohort is forming in 2018-2019.

275

attended each of four endowed lecture series events

450

adult learners were in the building every week
