

2018-2019 ANNUAL REPORT

Temple
Emanu-El

Thank you, our Temple Emanu-El community, for opening up possibilities in our lives—toward Torah and God, connection and continuity, laughter, tears and caring. Whether feeling moved by our beautiful services, rolling up our sleeves for social justice, walking or working together to make the world a better place or simply being there when someone needs you, Temple is a home of the heart and soul because of you, our members. As you reflect on the previous year in the pages that follow, know that Temple couldn't be what it is if not for the generosity of time, financial resources and love you provide each and every day.

We have made every effort to give proper credit to all who have so generously made financial contributions to Temple Emanu-El during the 2018-2019 fiscal year. We regret any omissions or errors, and request that any oversight be reported to the Development Office at 214.706.0000, ext. 198 or sdiamond@tedallas.org.

Our Mission

At Temple Emanu-El, the creation of a vibrant and meaningful community is both an enduring value and an ongoing endeavor. For us, community means a sense of warm welcome, meaningful relationships and mutual responsibility. We affirm a sense of both valued boundaries and a great respect for diversity. We celebrate our identity as a multi-generational community.

Excerpt, Core Values Statement, 2000

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENTS

Last year, we began with the goal of creating A Million Possibilities. Looking back, we did that, and much more. There were millions of smiles (and a few scraped knees) in our growing Early Childhood Education Center. Members of all ages enjoyed countless opportunities for learning and engagement from YL+E and adult learning programs. Hundreds of members strengthened bonds of Jewish relationship in our small groups. All of us were inspired, challenged and supported by our amazing Temple clergy.

Together we have laid a strong foundation for our Temple's future.

Mike Sims
President, April 2017-March 2019

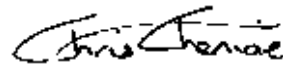

Temple is as vibrant as ever and as we approach the milestone of our 150th year, we pause to reflect and imagine. We will soon begin planning the events that retell the story of Temple's impact in our community and credit our past members and leaders for their vision and influence. It will be a time to celebrate all who laid our foundation and helped create the institution we cherish.

Over the next year, we seek to build on recent efforts to deepen connections within our congregation while expanding engagement opportunities beyond our walls. From our teens, to our more senior members, we will explore new ways to support congregants of all ages.

In the following pages, you will find our 2018-2019 Annual Report. It's a reflection of the value we place on community, learning, prayer and our members, clergy and staff as we mark the milestones of yet another terrific year together.

Inside this packet are also the materials for our 2019-2020 Annual Fund, Creating Possibilities Together. You will see that dues alone do not cover all the needs of our diverse congregation. Through your generous contributions, Temple can continue to support all our members in times of joy and of need.

OPENING UP TO PRAYER AND SPIRITUALITY

I was one of 18 congregants who participated in a journey to New York as an extension of the Prayer Project, a small group invited by clergy to become immersed in prayer at Temple.

The group visited several congregations, met with their cantors and had three very different prayer experiences. We explored Jewish New York as well as the Jewish Museum, the Tenement Museum, and the 9/11 Memorial & Museum. We also met with Jewish poets, teachers and columnists. The diverse ways we celebrate our Jewish experience are remarkable.

I especially enjoyed the people I traveled with. There were opportunities to get to know them better, to understand what prayer means to them and how they express their Jewish identity. It was a great trip and I for one am ready to go again.

57 members have participated in Prayer Project, a year-long intensive study and immersion in the many expressions of prayer at Temple.

14 congregants participate in the mitzvah of relighting the ner tamid, or everlasting light, in Olan Sanctuary each week. The ner tamid is lowered (pictured below, on a yoga day) by our facilities staff so that Keepers of the Light can say the prayer, add oil and and light the lamp.

Each Yoga Emanu-El class begins by going to the bimah of Olan Sanctuary and reading verses of sacred text that our teacher, Debbi K. Levy, has carefully selected to teach and shape the class. Debbi gifts us almost weekly with a special stone or stones associated with the lesson to be learned that week and which we often use to create a representation of an important symbol in the Torah.

Next, Debbi lovingly guides us in a short meditation related to the teaching. Yes, we get to meditate, often with our stones in our hands, on the bimah!

Then, we take this Torah study into our yoga practice that immediately follows in the back of the sanctuary. The highlight for me each week is doing a plank pose while gazing at the ner tamid, which I've been viewing from my seat in services since I was a child. It is truly a spiritual practice!

I have learned so much more about Judaism through Yoga Emanu-El. Even more importantly, it has significantly deepened my connection to our faith.

SPEAKING OUT, TAKING ACTION

Service is what I know. For me personally, it's about what I can do to better the little space that I occupy in this world.

Temple Emanu-El is my spiritual home and being on the forefront of Temple's social justice projects is one of the ways that I outwardly live my spirituality.

Being a people person, I enjoy the deep connections that I have made at my spiritual home while serving the greater Dallas community.

Sally Rosenberg, who coordinated meals at the Dallas Responds migrant respite center in June

It was really cool to travel with Temple to meet up with others as part of RACTX for a common goal of public school finance reform.

Robert Roseman, one of 19 Temple members, including five teens, who traveled to Austin to lobby during the 86th session of the Texas Legislature (pictured bottom row, far left)

4 Temple members traveled to the Texas-Mexico border over the Christmas holiday to advocate against family separation and placement of children in detention centers.

1,200

congregants pledged to vote during the 2018 midterm elections.

ON THE FRONT LINES OF HELPING OTHERS

Helping immigrant children in the Vickery Meadow Summer Reading Academy provided me the perfect opportunity for my one little part of tikkun olam. We are fortunate to have Temple Emanu-El understand the need to support volunteer opportunities in our community.
Dr. Michael Blum (wearing bow-tie)

Volunteering at Vickery Meadow Food Pantry

is very important to me because without adequate nourishment, no one has a chance to be successful, especially children. I feel strongly about giving back to the community—I benefit more as a person because I am able to give as a volunteer.

Carol Weinstein

18 people volunteer in the Jill Stone Community Garden every week.

Literacy Achieves is a program where Temple volunteers co-teach English language and citizenship classes to as many as 600 immigrants and refugees from more than 54 countries. We helped make U.S. citizenship possible for immigrants eligible for citizenship. Volunteering at this outstanding not-for-profit has truly enhanced my life and has given me a meaningful pathway to retirement.

21 new beds were installed in the expansion of the Jill Stone Community Garden.

38,000 pounds of food were donated to North Dallas Shared Ministries and Vickery Meadow Food Pantry from the High Holy Days Hunger Relief Drive.

1,336 pounds of produce were harvested from the Jill Stone Community Garden and donated to Vickery Meadow Food Pantry.

NURTURING OUR YOUNGEST

2,340 challot are eaten in a school year of the Early Childhood Education Center.

350 students are enrolled in the ECEC.

40 animals call ECEC their home.

12 different countries are represented by ECEC teachers.

We toured some of the other top schools in the area, but hands down, we felt the most welcomed at ECEC. I definitely teared up at one point during the tour because I was imagining Noah sitting in one of the classrooms. He was only 8 months old at the time. My husband and I were raised in practicing Muslim households and we hope to continue those practices with our son. We also place a very high value on diversity, social justice and learning about other faiths and cultures. I am glad the values we personally hold are being reinforced when Noah attends school. There are more similarities than differences between the Jewish and Muslim faiths, and I am continuously reminded of these shared values and practices.

ENGAGING OUR YOUTH

Our experience in the Hebrew Emanu-El program was great. My son started with zero Hebrew knowledge, and Sharona his teacher was amazing. Marino has made so much progress with her; he loves his teacher and his Hebrew class. The small-group settings by level of Hebrew knowledge are the best way go.
Nataly Cordova Yañez, with Marino

38 Hebrew Emanu-El groups (small Hebrew classes) meet around the Dallas area.

10 organizations benefited from mitzvah projects by YL+E students and their families.

562 students are enrolled in Youth Learning + Engagement.

For their b'nai mitzvah project, Jack and Emma chose to support their extended family in South Africa by helping the children and community in Kliptown. It was a two-year endeavor and has opened our family's eyes to all the components of tikkun olam, including how "it takes a village," as we relied on local and South African friends to make it all come together. The preschool in Kliptown embraced us, and many of the children were just as happy to receive our attention and love as they were to receive the gifts. It's hard to put into words how rewarding the experience was for all of us, and we thank Temple Emanu-El for helping reinforce our family values each day in the classroom and the synagogue. Matthew and Jonathan are already brainstorming ways that they can follow in their older siblings' footsteps and continue to support the people of Kliptown.

A COMMUNITY'S EMBRACE: 20s AND 30s

When we lived in New York, I remember sitting around with a friend group almost entirely comprised of young Jewish professionals and noting that not a single one of us belonged to a synagogue. And then we moved to the noted Jewish bastion of Dallas, Texas, and I prepared myself for more of the same. We were resigned to simply wait to have kids to find the Jewish community that we both craved.

To our delight, Dallas had other plans for us. Our friend invited Leslie to join a leadership board at Jewish Family Service, and Alexandra and Rabbi Dan acted as an enthusiastic welcoming committee to ATiD [Temple's 20s and 30s community]. Hannah and Rabbi Amy enlisted both of us into teaching roles at Youth Learning + Engagement, and Scott helped me find a professional home at JCC Dallas. Most recently, Erika has helped me find leadership roles in a few different communities around Temple Emanu-El. Within two years of moving here, we've found opportunities to practice our Judaism ranging from Havdalah services at a retro arcade to delivering Rosh Hashanah meals for those in need to cooking in the Dallas Kosher Chili Cook-Off.

I thought of all of these people and communities as Leslie and I hosted our first seder in our new home. To move half the country away from my family and friends, to start to build a community for ourselves from scratch, it hasn't always been easy or fun. But as I looked over our seder table to see friends new and old, I felt nothing but unyielding gratitude for all of these people in this community. I can't help but see where we've been and feel incredibly excited about where we are heading.

As a person who loves the outdoors, it's not hard for me to share my passion with others, however, I haven't explored much with connecting Judaism with my love for the outdoors.

Helping to plan Late Night Shabbat in May really allowed me to think about this connection. I'm thankful for the ATiD community and the impact it has had on my life.

Stacy Samuels

36 people attended second-night seders organized by ATiD.

125 attended the ATiD 13th Annual Burgers & Beer

A SONG IN OUR HEARTS

Temple Emanu-El's music program thrives because our clergy believe powerfully that we can animate and deepen our faith through music itself. This goes to the heart of Temple's mission and, thus, the music program is a central thread that binds, inspires and builds shared experiences among our congregants much like prayer itself. And, because our music program is a wonderful and vibrant mix of soulful connection, whimsy, and joy, it is a shared experience that spans all age groups. It is truly magical that one can walk through our halls and be serenaded by ECEC toddlers singing "Boker Tov" or hear the echoes of g2g seniors being taught a new tune by Cantor Leslie Niren, or a Bat Mitzvah student chanting the trope to her Torah portion with Cantor Vicky Glikin.

Of equal importance, the music program is purposefully enhanced with guest artists from around the world who remind us that there is wisdom and joy to be found in influences outside of our own myopia and curated playlists. Indeed, music, prayer, and community embody the very essence of Temple Emanu-El.

Gayle Johansen

67 choir members spent
101 hours in weekly practices.

200 happy patrons attended the Life is A Cabaret concert with Noah Aronson and Elana Arian.

Temple's music program has opened the opportunity for my 6-year-old son and me to engage in a deeper meaning of prayer together. The musical guests visiting throughout the years have truly touched our souls and have provided us a spiritual journey unlike anything else.

4 instrumentalists provide beautiful accompaniment to our cantors every Friday night.

I love the engagement that I personally feel at services with visiting musicians. That elevates the routine services to something special! Beyond that though, I found the most beautiful and moving experience through Soul Singing. So much so that I am offering to contribute to continue this specific musical/spiritual/meditative mash up—it's so great!

SMALL GROUPS, BIG MOMENTS

Our Sh'ma group, the Shabbat Supper Club, has been a source of great joy to me over the past four-plus years. I look forward to our fabulously delicious shared monthly dinners with a group of people who have come together in a very special way. We share, we laugh, sometimes we cry, and we celebrate. I'm blessed to be a part of this special family.

Elise Mikus (pictured fourth from left)

Small groups spent 400+ hours in shared learning, with fun, food and friendship as well!

There are 31 active Sh'ma groups, with a total of 382 participants.

3 babies are pictured, of the six born to couples in the Goin' to the Delivery Room small group. Other small group opportunities are Mussar, Wise Aging and Goin' to the Chuppah.

CARING: IT'S WHO WE ARE

100 mitzvah meals were delivered to congregants who have just returned home from hospitals or rehab centers.

Dana and Gail Lawrence moved to Dallas shortly before their twin granddaughters were born prematurely. Sadly, Beatrix Reid Lawrence died just after the twins' first birthday. Dana reflects on that period and the connection he felt with Temple Emanu-El.

That last month, with Bea in the PICU and failing, was hard. She was buried near her grandmother one week later. But I simply do not understand. None of it. How could this happen? Why couldn't we prevent it? It is many months later, and after a period of existential terror that Bea would be forgotten, it still hurts acutely.

We have been overwhelmed by the support of the rabbinic staff and others at Temple. Conversations with Rabbis Utley and Herzog Cohen have in particular been meaningful. We think of Bea every day, deeply sad that she only lived 13 months, of which 5 were in hospital. But I am happy to note that back near where she lived, the public library dedicated a permanent memorial to her, known as Bea's Garden. The Indian Prairie Public Library in Willowbrook, Ill. is one of the few places outside of home or hospital that Beatrix ever visited. I take solace in knowing she will not fade from memory.

Dana Lawrence (pictured left, with Gail)

Temple clergy and staff offer 80+ touches (emails/texts/calls/visits) per week to congregants in need.

Volunteers delivered 200+ Shabbat bags to members in hospitals and rehab centers.

The Conversation Project is a national project designed to help spark conversation about end-of-life desires. Temple Emanu-El hosted three sessions in 2018-2019 and will be offering four more in the coming year.

OLDER, BETTER, BEST

It has been very fulfilling to be involved in g2g, which offers our older active adults the opportunity to be together with other Temple members to learn, to enjoy, and to have fun. G2g also offers the opportunity to engage in activities that people might not have done on their own. I love it when I see our folks enjoying themselves as well as engaging with other Temple members.

1 overnight trip with Jewish content is offered every year.

6 congregants are proud to be 100-plus years young.

25 adults volunteer for The Well, Temple's twice-monthly program for those with mild to moderate cognitive impairment caused by dementia or other disease.

544 people at Temple have been an adult member for or married for 50 or more years.

ALWAYS LEARNING

11 congregants are enrolled in the adult bar/bat mitzvah program.

40 adult learning classes are held during the year at Temple.

The adult learning at Temple is outstanding in its breadth and width. From small classes to larger ones, everyone is invited to participate, ask questions, give responses, or just relax and take in the conversation and teachings.

We have brilliant and motivated teachers who are well trained and excellent communicators. We have enjoyed learning the ever-expanding concepts of our heritage as it was applied in the past and today.

Gary Solomon

500 boxes of popcorn are consumed during the Cinema Emanu-El season.

Over 300 adult learners are in the building every week.

SISTERS AND BROTHERS

There are 380 members of Women of Reform Judaism, which this year is headed by co-presidents Jennifer Hoffman and Rachel Newburn.

1,200 hamentashen were baked by WRJ for Purim.

$71,000 in grants was awarded back to Temple Emanu-El by WRJ.

800 sandwiches were delivered to Austin Street Center during Christmas Mitzvah sponsored by WRJ.

30,000 meals are cooked and donated by Brotherhood Mitzvah Cooking per year.

$31,000 plus in grants was awarded back to Temple Emanu-El by Brotherhood.

PROUD TO BE TEMPLE

300 people stopped by and/or volunteered at Temple's colorful, welcoming booth at Dallas Pride Festival.

75 people attended a community-wide workshop on gender identity, funded by the Jewish Federation of Greater Dallas. Hosted by Temple, the event was designed to create awareness of and sensitivity to changing expressions of gender.

6 rainbow challot were provided by a Temple member and enjoyed at Pride Shabbat.

I feel very lucky to have found a spiritual and communal home, as many LGBTQ people today do not feel that religious institutions can be a part of their lives. I am particularly proud of the Gender Identity Initiative's work to train parents and educators on creating safe environments for children.

What are endowment funds and why are they important at Temple Emanu-El?

Endowment funds create a permanent source of financial support for the mission of Temple Emanu-El. Establishing an endowed fund, or contributing to an existing fund, presents a unique opportunity to address the donor's interests and Temple's highest priorities. These funds can be created through current gifts of cash or securities as well as through estates and other deferred gift instruments. Endowed funds provide recognition opportunities by naming the fund in honor of family and friends or others who have been meaningful in the donor's life.

OUR TEMPLE | OUR FUTURE

We are forever grateful to Our Temple | Our Future donors for helping make Temple so full of possibilities.

BEA GOLDMAN COVENANT SOCIETY

The Bea Goldman Covenant Society was founded in 2001 to recognize those who provide for the future of Temple Emanu-El in their estate plans. The society has been named to honor the memory of Bea Goldman, who was devoted to Temple in her lifetime and directed that virtually all of her estate benefit Temple.

We acknowledge with gratitude the members of the Bea Goldman Covenant Society, listed below, who have notified Temple of their planned gifts or have generously designated Temple as a beneficiary of their wills.

If you have left a gift to Temple in your will or other estate plans, but are not listed as a member of the Bea Goldman Covenant Society, we encourage you to notify Temple's Development Office so that we may recognize your generosity by including your name.
