BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

Blessed are You, Holy One, Source of life.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה, יי, מְקוֹר הַחַיִּים

Temple
Emanu-El

IN GRATITUDE

On this Yom Kippur, 10 Tishrei 5783 | October 4-5, 2022,
we join together and say of our departed:
May their memory bring blessing to all those who loved them,
to our community, to the Jewish people and to the world.

Temple Emanu-El is grateful to all those who have made contributions in memory of their dear departed ones.

We are grateful to the Rita Paresky Philanthropic Fund for a grant to print this Book of Remembrance. All names received by August 15, 2022 have been included in this book, and names received after that date are included in the digital version.

LIGHTING THE YAHRZEIT CANDLE

The yahrzeit candle is lit before Yom Kippur begins and burns throughout the day, approximately 24 hours, to remind us that the light and soul of our loved ones is with us. Only one candle is necessary although some prefer to light a candle for each person no longer living. After lighting the candle, pause for a moment of meditation and memory. (There is no blessing for this ritual.)

AT HOME

Meditation

“I Recall”

I call (name) to mind and heart,
the texture of her/his/their life,
its/their presence in mine.

Images rise up
and fall away,
moments in the current of time—

tender, harsh,
extraordinary,
mundane,

that which gives pleasure in recollection
and that which hurts, yet resists
being forgotten.

May the threads of memory be woven into the fabric of my life
and bring healing.

Adaped from Marcia Falk, “The Days Between”

Kindling a Memorial Light

נֵר יְהוָה נִשְׁמַת אָדָם

Ner Adonai nishmat adam.

The light of God shines in our soul.
—Proverbs 20:27

(I/we) give thanks for the blessing of life,
for companionship,
and for memory.

Our tradition teaches us that we never lose those we love,
for love is stronger than death.

So (I/we) kindle this light now,
and as it burns,
so may the memory of (deceased)
continue to be an inspiration.

The CCAR Life Cycle Guide

REFLECTIONS

May these selections of poetry, excerpted from Mishkan HaNefesh for Yom Kippur, help guide you in remembering your loved ones.

Yahrzeit Candle

...It's a little low light the yahrtzeit candle makes, you couldn't read by it or even warm your hands. So the dead are with us only as the scent of fresh coffee, of cinnamon, of pansies excites the nose and then fades, with us as the small candle burns in its glass. We lose and we go on losing as long as we live, a little winter no spring can melt.

Marge Piercy
P. 565

We Miss Them

We miss them at celebrations,
when there's an empty seat at the table.
We miss them when the community gathers,
and there's an empty place beside us.
We miss them today, and every today,
with every year that passes,
as our life goes on without them.
Their faces, their voices, the feel of our arms around them—
these are with us forever.
For so it is written:
*Love is strong as death.**
The love that we gave, the love we received—these endure amid the pain of loss.

P. 602
**Song of Songs 8:6*

REFLECTIONS

The Correct Way to Stand

What is the correct way to stand at a memorial ceremony:
Erect or stooped, pulled taut as a tent or in the slumped posture of mourning, head bowed like the guilty or held high in a collective protest against death,
eyes gaping frozen like the eyes of the dead
or shut tight, to see stars inside?
And what is the best time for remembering? At noon
when shadows are hidden beneath our feet, or at twilight
when shadows lengthen like longings that have no beginning, no end, like God?

*Yehuda Amichai, from "Open Closed Open,"
P. 601*

The Courage That My Mother Had

The courage that my mother had Went with her, and is with her still.
Rock from New England quarried,
Now granite on a granite hill.

The golden brooch my mother wore
She left behind for me to wear;
I have no thing I treasure more;
Yet, it is something I could spare.

Oh, if instead she'd left me
The thing she took into the grave! —
That courage like a rock, which she Has no more need of, and I have.

*Edna St. Vincent Millay
P. 567*

Father

Today you would be ninety-seven if you had lived, and we would all be miserable, you and your children,
driving from clinic to clinic,
an ancient fearful hypochondriac
and his fretful son and daughter, asking directions, trying to read
the complicated, fading map of cures.
But with your dignity intact
you have been gone for twenty years,
and I am glad for all of us, although I miss you every day—the heartbeat
under your necktie, the hand cupped
on the back of my neck, Old Spice
in the air, your voice delighted with stories.
On this day each year you loved to relate that at the moment of your birth
your mother glanced out the window and saw lilacs in bloom. Well, today lilacs are blooming in side yards
all over Iowa, still welcoming you.

Ted Kooser
P. 589

GRIEF, HEALING, HOPE

Temple is here for you.

When You Suffer a Loss: Please contact the receptionist at Temple's main number or a member of the clergy. You will be guided compassionately and sensitively through the Jewish mourning practice.

Daily Minyan: Our daily minyan service meets online at 8:15AM Sunday through Friday. It provides an opportunity to fulfill the mitzvah of saying Kaddish for loved ones. On Shabbat, we invite you to say Kaddish as part of our Shabbat Morning Service at 10:30AM every Saturday.

For the Zoom link, contact templecommunications@tedallas.org.

Memorial Room: The Levine Memorial Room is a quiet refuge in which to pause and reflect about the people who came before us. Bronze plaques in honor of loved ones are available for purchase and installation, and you are welcome to visit the space whenever the Temple building is open.

Grief Support: Temple offers ongoing grief support in variety of ways. Meeting with clergy, weekday minyan services, Shabbat services, Yizkor services and small groups are all part of our support of those who are journeying through grief in our community.

Contact: Meredith Pryzant, mpryzant@tedallas.org

Temple Emanu-El Cemetery and Mausoleum: The historic Temple Emanu-El Cemetery was established on its present tranquil site on Howell Street at Lemmon Avenue in 1884; it was the second Jewish cemetery in Dallas. Early settlers in Dallas formed the Hebrew Benevolent Society in 1872 to bury their dead. Members of this society went on to establish Temple Emanu-El in 1875.
