FOR THOSE WHO WEAR TALLIT

AS I WRAP myself in the tallit, I fulfill the mitzvah of my Creator.

Before putting on tallit

BLESS, ADONAI, O my soul!
Adonai my God, how great You are.
You are robed in glory and majesty,
wrapping Yourself in light as in a garment,
spreading forth the heavens like a curtain.

Rabbi sets up presentation of Tallit

SHACHARIT L'SHABBAT II — SHABBAT MORNING II

בַּרוּכִים הַבַּאִים Welcome

INSPIRATION FOR PRAYER

IT IS NOT WE ALONE who pray;

all things pray.

All things pour forth their souls.

The heavens pray, the earth prays,

every creature and every living thing prays.

In all life, there is longing.

Creation itself is but a longing,

a prayer to the Almighty.

What are the clouds, the rising and the setting of the sun,

the soft radiance of the moon, and the gentleness of the night?

What are the flashes of the human mind and the storms of the human heart?

They are all prayers —

the outpouring of boundless longing for God.

Student reads

WE GIVE THANKS to You, O God, for this Shabbat day, which unites us as a community of faith and hope.

Congregation reads

For the holiness of Shabbat, which can lead us to fulfill the best that is in us, we give thanks.

Student reads

Student reads

For the memories of Shabbat, enriched by generations of our people who observed it and from it drew courage to face hardship, and light to banish darkness, we are grateful. Congregation reads

We offer thanks for the peace of Shabbat, the day consecrated to family love.

O God, our turning to You exalts our humanity.

You are the joy of our life,

the Source of its greatness, its power and its beauty.

Congregation reads

Help us, O God, to find inspiration for the coming week; help us to find peace within ourselves and one another.

בּרוּךְ שֵׁם כְּבוֹד מַלְכוּתוֹ לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד.

9:4). Israel is called upon to be totally devoted to God, whose Torah is to be ever-present in our waking thoughts. The Rabbis call the content of this paragraph "Accepting the Yoke of Divine Sovereignty" (M. B'rachot 2:2). The first verse is singled out for special focus: over the centuries it was understood to refer to the unity and singularity of God, where Judaism differed from Christianity. It also came to be associated with Jewish martyrdom, based on a legend of Rabbi Akiba's death. These are the last words to be recited before going to sleep at night as well as before one's death.

קבוד שָׁם כְּבוּוּד שִׁם בְּרוּדְ שֵׁם כְּבוּוּד Baruch shem k'vod... Blessed is God's glorious... According to M. Yoma 3:8, this was the congregational response in the Temple courtyard on the Day of Atonement when the High Priest would pronounce the name of God and the people would prostrate themselves in awe. Classical Reform practice grouped this response with the Shma for singing or congregational recitation; traditionally it is recited silently because it interrupts the biblical paragraph.

Turn to page 203 [321].

LOVE ADONAI your God with every heartbeat, with every breath, with every conscious act.

Keep in mind the words I command you today.

Teach them to your children, talk about them at work;

whether you are tired or you are rested.

Let them guide the work of your hands;

keep them in the forefront of your vision.

Do not leave them at the doorway of your house, or outside your gate.

They are reminders to do all of My mitzvot, so that you can be holy for God.

I am Adonai your God.

I led you out of Egypt to become your God,

I am Adonai your God!

וְאָהַבְּתְ V'ahavta . . . You shall love . . . Deuteronomy 6:5-9; this instruction to love God and to be devoted to the study of Torah is the continuation of the first line of Shma, not a separate unit. Reform practice has been to recite this out loud or to chant it using Torah cantillation; traditionally it is recited silently.

לְמַעֵּעְ תִּזְּכְּרוּ Limaan tizkru . . . They are reminders . . . Numbers 15:40-41; the end of the third paragraph of the Shima is an exhortation to be mindful of our religious obligations and to be holy, since God, in redeeming Israel from Egypt, established a claim to the Jewish people's loyalty.

Rabbi transitions to Amidah and asks congregation to rise.

Summer

YOU ARE forever mighty, Adonai; You give life to all (revive the dead).

WINTER — You cause the wind to shift and rain to fall.

SUMMER — You rain dew upon us.

You sustain life through love, giving life to all (reviving the dead) through great compassion, supporting the fallen, healing the sick, freeing the captive, keeping faith with those who sleep in the dust. Who is like You, Source of mighty acts? Who resembles You, a Sovereign who takes and gives life, causing deliverance to spring up and faithfully giving life to all (reviving that which is dead)?

Shabbat Shuvah — Who is like You, Compassionate God, who mercifully remembers Your creatures for life?

Blessed are You, Adonai, who gives life to all (who revives the dead).

בָּרוּדְ אַתָּה, יָיָ, מְחַיֵּה הַכֹּל (הַמֵּתִים).

מַשִּׁיב הְרְוּחַ / מוֹרִיד הַטַל Mashiv haruach / Morid hatal — with these words, we join our Israeli brothers and sisters in their prayers for seasonal rains in the Land of Israel.

מוֹרִיד הַשִּל Morid hatal . . . You rain dew upon us . . . A seasonal insertion into the G'vurot acknowledges God as the Source of the power of nature. The variations in climate like growth and decay, birth and death, are part of the fixed pattern of the universe created by God. In his prayerbook, Minhag America, Isaac Mayer Wise used the prayer for dew and rain as a permanent part of this benediction.

EXALTED and hallowed be God's great name in the world which God created, according to plan.

May God's majesty be revealed in the days of our lifetime and the life of all Israel — speedily, imminently, to which we say Amen.

Blessed be God's great name to all eternity.

Blessed, praised, honored, exalted, extolled, glorified, adored, and lauded be the name of the Holy Blessed One, beyond all earthly words and songs of blessing, praise, and comfort. To which we say Amen.

May there be abundant peace from heaven, and life, for us and all Israel. To which we say Amen.

May the One who creates harmony on high, bring peace to us and to all Israel. To which we say Amen.

THE WINE OR GRAPE JUICE

The blessing may be said over wine or grape juice.

Lift the goblet but do not drink until after the Blessing of Separation.

Praise to You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of the universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

THE SPICES

Lift the spice box.

Praise to You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of the universe, Creator of varied spices.

Circulate the spice box.

THE LIGHT

Raise the Havdalah candle.

Praise to You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of the universe, Creator of the lights of fire.

The filled and raised cup is symbolic of the joy felt when expressing gratitude to God. The wine or grape juice is not sipped until after the final blessing (next page).

The spices, coming from the earth, remind us of our duty during our work-week to protect the fragile balance of nature.

PRAISE TO YOU, Adonai our God, Sovereign of the universe: who distinguishes between the holy and ordinary, between light and dark, between Israel and the nations, between the seventh day and the six days of work. Praise to You, Adonai who distinguishes between the holy and ordinary.

Sip the wine or grape juice.

Extinguish the Havdalah candle in the remaining wine or grape juice, while the following passages are sung or said:

MAY THE ONE who distinguishes between the holy and the ordinary, pardon our sins; multiply our offspring and our possessions as grains of sand and as the stars at night.

A good week, a week of peace, may gladness reign and joy increase.

A song of ascents. When Adonai restores the fortunes of Zion, we see it as in a dream, our mouths shall be filled with laughter, our tongues, with songs of joy. Then shall they say among the nations, "Adonai has done great things for them!" Adonai will do great things for us and we shall rejoice. Restore our fortunes, Adonai, like watercourses in the Negev. They who sow in tears shall reap with songs of joy. Those who go forth weeping, carrying the seed-bag, shall come back with songs of joy, carrying their sheaves.
