A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

As we enter into our season of renewal, we welcome you to Temple Emanu-El. In the coming weeks, we will join together to celebrate the High Holy Days, Sukkot and Simchat Torah. We will then turn to the concluding events of TE150 as we launch into the future in new and exciting ways. Please mark your calendars for a very special Rededication Shabbat and congregational dinner on Nov. 3.

On behalf of all of your officers and trustees, I wish you a new year of peace, joy, health and fulfillment.
Shanah Tovah!

Bob Krakow

THE SEASON OF RETURN

This is the season of return:
Of returning to ourselves and to our people,
Of returning to our God
And returning to our calling.

This is the season of quiet:
Of quieting the mind to hear the Voice,
Of quieting the heart to hear the Soul,
Of quieting the self to make space
for the Ein Sof [endless one].

This is the season of surrender:
Of surrendering odd quirks and old habits to dignity and kindness,
Of surrendering fear and despair to hope and adventure, to honor and service.

This is the season of return:
Of returning to wholeness and love,
To prayer and charity,
To family and friends.
This is the season that reminds us of who we are
And who we might become.
The season that summons us to return ourselves to purpose,
And our lives to God's Holy Word.
– Alden Solovy, "This Grateful Heart"

SEASON OF REDEDICATION

Last fall, we ushered in the TE150 celebration with Sukkot, in which we sung the words to Elana Arian's "Ivdu et Adonai" for the first time: "Bring in spirit, bring in joy, endless blessings, open doors."

And how true those words have been. In the weeks to come, we will say good-bye to TE150 even as we continue to open doors to Temple's future. Don't miss a very special three weeks, culminating in Rededication Shabbat on Nov. 3.
